VOL. XXXV. SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., JUNE 20, 1914. NO. 50

GOVERNOR HIRAM L. JOHNSON UNVEILS BEAR FLAG MONUMENT

The volume whose leaves are records of an historical past, and its binding a network of eventful, picturesque, romantic incidents and reminiscences, was opened for review, Sunday, June 14, 1914, and Sonoma again stepped proudly into the limelight.

It certainly was a great day in the annals of Sonoma, in fact in the history of the Banner County, and never has so large a crowd assembled in our city as on this occasion. Visitors were highly laudatory in the compliments showered upon Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons for the splendid management and successful carrying out of the tremendous undertaking.

The great event opened on Saturday morning with

The Parade,

Which was neadedby the Petaluma Band, followed by Sergeant Birdsell and his imposing squad of police.

Under the leadership of Grand Marshal J. H. Murray, supported by Theo. A. Keiser, A. Lavaroni and Milton Sobbe, as aides, the big parade followed the line of march, enthusiastic applause greeting and rewarding the hundreds whose individual and united efforts had resulted in presenting one of the most beautiful pageants ever arranged in Sonoma.

In line were many splendid representations entered by enterprising business men and residents generally.

We cannot give consecutive order of various divisions, and trust the foregoing list includes all who expended time and trouble in helping to make this feature a success. If anyone has been overlooked, it is certainly unintentional.

Splendid, well-gotten-up floats were in line, demonstrating the enterprising business firms of Sonoma Valley merchants.

A. Chelini's wood yard was typically represented and received many compliments.

A. H. Rubke—whose fine, four-horse float was driven by himself, represented the Vineburg boosters. Jake Meyers, the well-known Vineburg pioneer, occupied a seat beside the driver and in the float rode Misses Arvolia Shoemaker, Virginia Picetti and Edith Lowell.

John Batto & Sons', advertising the three standard flouring mills, attracted much attention by the cleverness of the Misses Louise Batto and Rose Basaglia, as darkies, assisted by the prince of funmakers, Jim Small.

The Sonoma Egg Federation had one of the finest floats in line. It was driven by P. Hansen and occupied by a bevy of charming young ladies.

Enterprising Louis LaMotte, advertised his popular resort, El Verano Villa, with an attractive representation of "Vacation Time."

Mrs. P. Yenni's Ice-Cream Parlor was represented by a very pretty float, a cornucopia, from either side of which smiled out the dainty Misses Elsie Yenni, Cecelia Thomson, Margaret Hochendel and Gladys Shields.

The dashing turn-out, driven by N. Castagnasso and Russell Colton, representing the Union Livery Stables, was decorated by Will Peterson.

The gem of the parade was the beautiful float entered by Mrs. C. B. McDevitt. In the center of a golden California poppy, the baby face of pretty Elizabeth Anna McDevitt won the admiration of spectators. Drawing the float, dainty in white and yellow, were little Misses Marguerite McDevitt, Beatrice Heggie, Blanche Bianchini, Evelyn and Remildo DeMartini, and Emily Batto.

One of the prettiest and most effective in the line of march was that of the Star Soda Works—a beribboned bottle in a gayly decorated wagon drawn by the proprietor's—E. C. Campbell—little son Coleman.

Guided by his proud master, the pet dog of little Charlie Price drew a small wagon-load of California poppies along the line of march.

Henry Koerner won a prize as the result of his enterprise and originality. His favorite resort, Oak Grove, was represented by a fine band, and an immense bear, which acknowledged the salutes of enthusiastic spectators.

Another deserved prize-winner was the splendid reproduction of the Old Mission, entered by Mrs. Arthur Mosso. It was certainly very fine, and it was regretted that it was not shown in Sunday's parade.

The beautiful float of Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons was greatly admired. Quite naturally, too, as it was graced by the presence of royalty—Queen California and her adies in waiting.

Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons, headed by our own splendid Sonoma Valley Band, received a perfect ovation along the march, and so did the loyal members of Glen Ellen Parlor, who were so helpful during the celebration.

Another organization deservedly applauded during the march was the Sonoma Drum Corps. In their handsome new uniforms, the boys made a fine appearance. The corps comprises: Fred Hansen (leader), Will and Fred Helberg, Leonard Thomas, Ed Peterson, Harry Quatraoli, Louis Picetti, Charles Kelly, Henry Anselmi, Victor Beretta, James Modini, Jas. and A. Maffei.

One of the finest features of the parade was the handsomely decorated automobile, entered by Mrs. Theo. Richards, representing Agua Caliente Springs. It was occupied by Mrs. Richards and a party of lady friends, all beautifully gowned. This handsome turn-out was rewarded with first prize

Mrs. Geo. Fetters, of Fetters' Hot Springs, drove a most artistically decorated car, and also had another fine automobile in line.

Boyes's Hot Springs received commendation for entering two splendidly decorated automobiles.

Other finely decorated machines in line were those of Hen. Robt. P. Hill, John Batto, C. T. Ryland, R. L Watt, F. W. Carter and E. Berri.

S. P. Woodworth, J. A. Kinsella, B. F. Campbell, and J. V. McGraw served as a committee on prize awards. As already stated honors were awarded Mrs. Theo. Richards, Mrs. Arthur Mosso and Henry Koerner.

It is regrettable that more prizes could not have been awarded, as several floats deserved recognition.

The Races

Given under the auspices of the Sonoma Driving Club, was the magnet which attracted hundreds to the Sonoma race track in the afternoon. Great enthusiasm prevailed, especially during the finish of each of the three races in which Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan drove under the wire to victory.

The results were as follows:

The first race, 2:40 class, mile heats, purse $50, was won by Dewey, owned by S. O'Leary of Petaluma. Time: 2.31-2.35.

D. McGovern's Frank D. came in second, L. Brubeck's Dick was third in the race.

In the second race, free for all, pace, the purse of $100 was won by Happy Dentist, owned by J. J. Ryan of San Francisco. Time: 2.15-2.16. Hamburg Belle, Jack Denochie, owner, second.

Kitty Dillon, owned by Tom Ryan of El Verano, and driven by Joe Ryan, won first honors in free for all trot, and the purse of $100. Time: 2.14-2.15. Sexton's Silver Hunter was second.

In the 2:30 class, pace, Petaluma Girl, owned by P. Ramatice of Petaluma, and driven by Joe Ryan of Sonoma, won the $50 purse. Time: 2.24-2.21. Lady M. came in second Rudolph Spreckels' Miss Rooney won the purse of $100 in the 2.15 class, pace, with Joe Ryan as driver. Time: 2.15-2.16.

Ayers' Tom Murphy came second in one heat, and one heat was won by Kerny's W. J. K.

The Fireworks

In the evening were beautiful, in fact the finest, most brilliant display ever shown in Sonoma. Basell Park grounds and adjacent thoroughfares were thronged with delighted spectators, and on every side exclamations of pleasure were heard as fantastic, novel creations trailed shimmering across the sky. The representations of the Bear Flag and the monument were especially beautiful and effective.

When the last glimmer of golden glow had disappeared, a large assemblage wended its way toward Union Hall, where was held

The Grand Ball

Queen California Miss Florence Green, escorted by Louis H. Mooser, Grand President of the Native Sons of the Golden West, led the march, the distinguished couple receiving due homage from the many loyal subjects present. California had a most charming representative in the lovely girl who wore her crown of golden poppies and leaves of silver, with grace and dignity. Her Grecian robe of shimmering yellow satin was handsome with gold trimmings. Her bevy of pretty attendants—Misses Delina Marmori, Valeria Helberg, Marguerite Gericke, Clara Peterson, Virginia Picetti, and Zoleta Bates—were fair to look upon in dainty robes of white and silver.

An orchestra composed of Roy Pauli and Frank Knolle (violins), Emmet Gottenberg and Claude Johnson (cornets), W. H, Bailey (clarinet), Mrs. Ada Pauli (piano) and Fred Hansen (drums) furnished dance music par excellence. Encore after encore was demanded and graciously given. Despite the weariness of the musicians, the festivities contiuned until breaking dawn gave warning that the time was short in which to make preparation for Sunday's Parade.

The parade, marshaled by J. H. Murray, and aides—Theo. Keiser, A. Lavaroni, and Milton Sobbe—and headed by the League of the Cross Cadets' Band marched from the depot up to Napa street and out Napa street as far as the Presentation Convent, in order that the Sisters might view and experience thrills of proud gratification, as did every Catholic whose pleasure and privilege it was to look upon that splendid assemblage of young men and women who marched behind the banners of the Young Men's Institute, the Young Ladies' Institute and the temperance League of the Cross Cadets.

In the line of march, handsomely uniformed, were the drill teams of Dolores, California, Juniper Serra, and Del Mar Councils of the Young Ladies' Institute; drill teams of Nos. 3, 34, 35 and Silesian Councils of the Young Men's Institute, and during the parade these perfectly trained young men and women, with faultless precision and accuracy, formed the cross, a star, the letters Y. L. I. and Y. M. I. That nothing has ever been shown on the streets to compare with this demonstration is the sentiment of the general public in Sonoma.

Alameda Parlor of Native Sons, splendidly uniformed, and headed by a fine Alameda Band, were enthusiastically received along the line of march. These patriotic sons of the Golden West made a fine display, not only of manhood, but also commendahle enterprise and loyalty.

Mission Parlor, San Francisco, were splendidly represented, with music, and applause greeted this zealous Parlor of Native Sons.

Genial Sergeant Chas. Birdsell, anxious to contribute to the success of the day's events, entered his squad of police in the parade, to the pleasure of spectators.

The splendid Petaluma Band, properly conceded to be one of the very best musical organizations in the State, won merited recognition by the fine music discoursed along the line of march.

Responding to the cheers and salutes of the multitude from out her royal equipage smiled lovely Queen California and her charming maids of honor.

Honors were generously divided, a large mede being accorded the boyish little fellows, nattily uniformed in green, who comprise the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum Band and were a picturesque feature of Sunday morning's parade. The excellence of their music won enthusiastic applause.

Also in line were Sonoma's well-trained Drum Corps, San Francisco Native Son Drum Corps, Silesian Council, Y. M. I. Drum Corps.

Sonoma Valley Council, No. 45, Young Men's Institute, made a fine showing, and as nearly every Institute member is also a loyal Native Son of the Golden West, the fraternity received due recognition as important factors in the success of the celebration.

The parade countermarched back to where thousands had assembled to witness the impressive ceremonies which were as nearly as possible to

Restore Mission San Faancisco de Solano

To its primitive state. Before the historic edifice, which had been founded by the padres and dedicated to the worship of God, Military Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. Juniper, O. F. M., assisted by Rev. Father Comerford, pastor of St. Francis' Church. In the characteristic robes of the Franciscan monks, Father Juniper seemed a figure from out the misty past.

The music was by the Young Men's Institute choir, led by Stanislaus A. Riley of Council No. 35, and League of the Cross Cadets' Band. The hymns, "Come, Holy Ghost," "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," and "To Jesus' Heart All Burning," were beautifully given.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. D. J. Kavanagh, S. J.

This was pronounced by all who had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Father Kavanagh as a perfect gem. Said a friend of ours, a man who knows, in speaking of this sermon: "Isn't it a pity the conditions were such that more people who were present could not hear the speaker? Father Kavanagh himself realized the difficulty and twice told his congregation that he must shorten his sermon, 'though it is still in our minds as a splendid bit of sermonizing.

"He carried us along so naturally, did the preacher; from an appreciation of the physical beauties, the commercial possibilities through thoughts of the manly strength and courage of the Native Sons, to the story of the establishing of Christianity in California. From the gold of the sunsets and the gold of the fertile fields, from the gold of a Christian soul—life made possible by the efforts of the Franciscan Friars, to the gold of a life, fused with Christ, lived here and now—this was the message of the sermon.

"And it would be splendid if it all were printed and read that the hearts of us might be stirred to a fuller realizrtion of our historic mission, our historic town, our own immortal souls."

So many have felt that the historic as well as the spiritual worth of the sermon ought not to lost, that we shall endeavor to give it in its entirety next week.

The Unveiling of the Bear Flag Monument.

Governor Hiram L. Johnson was first presented, and his eloquent address will long be remembered by those who had the good fortune to be within range of the distinguished speaker's voice.

Fully five thousand people wildly enthusiastic, rent the air with cheer upon cheer when the Hon. Hiram L. Johnson, Governor of California, the greatest of all these United States, severed the cords which released the Bear Flag with which the monument was draped, disclosing to view the artistically modeled, perfectly sculptured figure in bronze.

Governor Johnson reviewed the historical episode of the raising of the Bear Flag. "The sturdy souls who raised this flag prefigured the destiny of California," said Governor Johnson, "and they had the vision of the empire of pre-eminence which we now possess. To judge their action in the light of critical history is idle, for even we, with the advantages of the succeeding years, cannot begin to measure the scope of our opulence and advantages. We know that these men, our progenitors, saw ahead with far-seeing eyes and set for us an example in courage and initiative that must ever be our guiding impulse and inspiration."

Glowing tribute was paid to the great commonwealth of which he is the chief executive, and in the course of his address, he eulogized the padres, by whose indefatigable efforts and devotion the seeds of Christianity and civilization were planted.

Ex-mayor M. E. Cummings, who presided as Chairman, opened the program with a brief address of welcome to California's chief magistrate, and to the vast assemblage of visitors gathered on this auspicious occasion, and in well-chosen words expressed sentiments befitting the importance and triumphs of the memorable event.

Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, was next introduced, and delivered a fervent invocation.

Jesse F. Prestwood, President of Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W., made an excellent address, one of the best of the afternoon. He spoke succinctly of the history of the Bear Flag, and of the commemoration of the notable event in bronze, through the artistic genius of the sculptor, John McQuarrie, and the generosity of the last State Legislature, which, as a result of the efforts of Assemblyman Herbert W. Slater, appropriated the $5,000 with which it was cast.

Frederick T. Duhring, past president of Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W., and a member of Sutter's Fort Commission, addressed the assemblage in his usual eloquent, forceful manner. He outlined interestingly the place and incidents of this episode in the State's history, and paid tribute to the men whose loyal efforts have immortalized it in bronze on the exact spot upon which that crude flag, inscribed with the figure of a bear and a single star was flung to the breezes, and how it was remarked that it needed a strip of red. "It was then," explained Mr. Duhring, "that the Spanish wife of one of the sturdy revolutionists came to the rescue by tearing off a strip of her red petticoat and having it sewn as a border to the flag."

In the introduction of Assemblyman Herbert W. Slater, Chairman Cummings thoughtfully paid tribute to the speaker as having introduced and secured the passage of the bills providing for the Bear Flag Monument and restoration of the Old Mission. Assemblyman Slater's address while brief was most pleasing and in fluent terms he complimented the host of the occasion, Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons, on the wonderful success of the celebration. Mr. Slater concluded passing mention of the occasion of the memorable gathering by introducing James McChristian, the only living survivor of the Bear Flag party. The distinguished pioneer was vociferously cheered.

Forceful, eloquent addresses were made by Past Grand President N. S. G. W. Lewis F. Byington, and Congressman Jos. R. Knowland, both of whom have won distinction as being among California's finest orators.

John Mcquarrie, the gifted artist who modeled the figure of the pioneer, was introduced to receive the appreciative cheers of the multitude. The artist was also highly complimented by Governor Johnson and Lewis F. Byington, during the course of their addresses.

Louis H. Mooser, Grand President of the Native Sons, had the honor of presenting the Bear Flag Monument to the City of Sonoma, and he took advantage of the opportunity offered to say many nice things of the golden west, of the gift of California to her loyal sons and of the historic city upon which the gift is bestowed.

Mayor Wm. Von Hacht, on behalf of the city, fittingly accepted the Monument, and in well-chosen words expressed appreciation at the honor and privilege given to Sonoma in receiving so important a trust.

During the presentation of the program, the fine voice of Alfred H. Jansen was heard to decided advantage in the beautiful solo, "California Beside the Restless Sea."

The splendid compositions, "I Love You, California," and "Red, White and Blue," were excellently rendered by a chorus comprising the following favorite local vocalists: Olney Pedigo (Santa Rosa) and Ralph Buchan, tenor; Mrs. Ralph Hotz and Miss Henrietta Webber, soprano; Mesdames J. A. Kinsella and Jas. McElney, alto; M. H. Rowell and A. T. Jansen, basso.

Rev. C. H. Wood pronounced benediction, the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," and with rousing cheers the crowd left the scene of the day's event.

Deserve Credit.

Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons deserve every word of commendation, every tribute of praise showered upon that body of energetic, untiring workers, who were unsparing of time and energy in the effort to carry through to successful completion the details of arrangement which made the unveiling and presentation of the Bear Flag Monument to the City of Sonoma, and the partial restoration of Mission San Francisco de Solano, the most notable and biggest celebration in the history of the county.

It is conceded, as a matter of course, that to the men placed in command of affairs is due the largest share of credit for the success of an undertaking, hence this honor is to be accorded to Jesse F. Prestwood, President of Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons, and M. E. Cummings, director-general of the celebration. However, in fullest measure praise is due every committee-man named for the work. It mattered not whether he were chairman or assistant, he labored as zealously and gave equally efficient aid. Lest you have forgotten just how many active, energetic Native Sons are responsible for the success of the event, we once more give the list:

Publicity—J. F. Picetti, Theo. Keiser, Ernest C. Campbell.

Dedication—F. T. Duhring, M. E. Cummings, L. H. Green.

Reception—Dr. H. W. Gottenberg, H. F. Bates, Geo. McGill.

Parade—Joseph I. Keiser, Fred J. Hansen James J. Maffei.

Reception Committee of Sonoma Valley Council, No. 45. Young Men's Institute—W. J. Kearney, W. J. Kehoe, M. E. Cummings, Geo. Millerick, J. H. Murray.

In conclusion, a few words for one whose name appears upon no committee, but whose individual efforts accomplished as much as the united labors of several committees. We refer to Rev. T. M. Comerford, who spent much time visiting among the various Institutes, persuading their drill teams to appear in Sunday morning's parade. Father Comerford also assumed all expense a considerable amount—attendant upon the bringing of the St. Vinvent's Orphan Asylum and League of the Cross Cadets' Bands to Sonoma. The grand showing made by the Institutes was, as a matter of fact, due more to the personal regard in which Father Comerford is held in San Francisco, than to assist at the partial restoration of the Mission. Father Comerford is to be warmly congratulated on the results he achieved.

Personal Mention

Among the prominent visitors in our city to witness the unveiling of the monument was Mrs. J. V. A. Fiates, daughter of the venerable pioneer and Bear Flag party survivor, James McChristian. The lady's husband and children, Louise and Joseph, were also here from Sebastopol. Other members of the interesting Bear Flag party of visitors were Mrs. Minnie Leahy and Miss Elena O'Farrell, daughters of the distinguished pioneer, Jasper O'Farrell, and neices of Mr. McChristian; the Misses Honoria R. P. Tuomey and Dorothy Leahy. Miss Tuomey, a resident of the Gold Ridge district, is one of the most prominent and successful teachers in the county, and is, moreover, a writer of marked ability.

On his visit to Sonoma, Gov. H. L. Johnson was accompanied by Daniel A. Ryan, a prominent San Francisco lawyer, and a cousin of our well-known residents, Mesdames M. J. Millerick and J. F. Kehoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hotz entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. Temple Bailhache and family, Mrs. Marion Grant and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Oda Waldrop and Miss Lou Thompson, of Healdsburg, and Mrs. A. Calderwood and daughter, Miss Ruth, of San Francisco.

Grand President of the Young Men's Institute James A. Bacigalupi, attorney for the Italian Counsil, was a proud soldier in the ranks and marched with the Council of which he is a member in Sunday's parade.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kinslow were among the prominent Santa Rosans to enjoy the celebration, and paid many compliments to Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons on the success of the big event.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hazen, well-known residents of Healdsburg, were week-end visitors in our city, and were charmed with its delightful surrounding country.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown (nee Miss Mamie Engelund) have been here from Ukiah spending the week visiting with relatives and their many friends.

Geo. Engler and daughter, Miss Amy, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bunch of San Francisco, Miss Claudia Leggett of Santa Rosa, Miss Iva Hein of Mill Valley, and Arthur Drake of Modesto. The popular Engler brothers were also home to enjoy the big time. Both are attaches of the Northwestern Pacific Railway—Frank at Willits and Dock at Santa Rosa.

Mrs. Emily Cornelius, of San Francisco, spent the holiday week at the home of her son, Emil Cornelius.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Poppe enjoyed the company of their daughter, Miss Ruth, and her friends, Mr. and Mrs. M. Palliser, of San Francisco.

Mrs. Otto Von Geldern, who has a host of friends in Sonoma, was here from the Bay City. The presence of her genial husband was greatly missed—a celebration of any sort in this city seems incomplete without Mr. Von Geldern.

Miss Josepine Molloy, Grand Secretary of the Young Ladies' Institute, was in line in Sunday's parade. Rev. Father Comerford feels deeply indebted to Miss Molloy, for her indefatigable efforts in securing her fraternity to assist at the restoration of the Mission ceremonies.

Another prominent and energetic worker to whom Father Comerford feels under lasting obligation is John P. Denehy, Past Grand President Young Men's Institute. "We certainly owe to Mr. Denehy a large mede of praise and gratitude," declared Father Comerford. "He was untireless and persistent in his efforts in our behalf."

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. McConnell were guests at the Union Hotel during the celebration. The gentleman, who is a prominent Woodland banker, is a brother of W. I. McConnell of Santa Rosa, and was a resident of this city many years ago. He and his wife were pleased with the progressive aspect of historic Sonoma and greatly enjoyed the celebration.

Among other visitors was Jas. A. Smith, of Arbuckle, Colusa county. The gentleman's parents were pioneers of our city, and although a native son, having been born here in 1860, this is his first visit to his home town since leaving here in childhood. Mr. Smith has a wide acquaintanceship in this and Mendocino counties.

Mesdames M. H. Peck and Lillian G. White were among the Santa Rosans here. The ladies are daughters of A. C. McDonald, who in the '50's served as county treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora T. Hassett and charming daughter, Miss Sibyl, were among the prominent Healdsburgers here for the great day.

County Assessor J. P. Berry was here for both days, and was enthusiastic over the success of the great events. In the Berry party were Mrs. M. E. Berry, H. W. Weske, Frank Berry and Donald Geary.

Rev. Father Comerford entertained Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey of Oakland, Judge Frank Griffin, and Attorney Ben McKinley, assistant state district attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Picetti had as guests the gentleman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. Diluchi, and son, Phillip, the party motoring up from the Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Byington and family motored down from Healdsburg, to enjoy the important event and hear the eloquent address of their distinguished relative, Lewis F. Byington.

Mrs. E. Meckall and daughter of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mentasti of Sebastopol were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDevitt over the celebration.

The show window of Kistle & Co. presented a decidedly novel and attractive decoration, drawing much attention and many deserved compliments. In the window were eighty-seven baby chicks, just two days old, from the hatchery of Fred Hansen. Wheeling a load of feed to the tiny birds was a Teddy Bear. The window, which was otherwise decorated, was the clever work of Mr. Kistle's sister, Mrs. May Elebach.

Judge Wm. M. Conley for Chief Justice

Judge Wm. M. Conley, candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed Judge W. H. Beatty, was born in Mariposa County in 1866, his parents being early California pioneers. After studying law in San Francisco, he was admitted to the bar in 1891 and practiced for two years in Bakersfield and Merced.

He moved to Madera in 1893 and was elected Superior Judge when the county was created in that year. At that time he was only twenty-six years old, and the youngest judge ever elected in California. Judge Conley has occupied the Superior Bench ever since, twenty-one years in all and has the unique distinction of having served almost half his life as a judge. He was re-elected in 1894, 1900, 1906 and finally in 1912, when he received all but a handful of the votes cast in his county.

During the past fifteen years, he has been designated repeatedly by succeeding governors to try important cases throughout California, and he is equally at home when dealing with any branch of litigation, whether criminal, civil or probate. Last year he was designated by Governor Johnson to try the second Clarence Darrow case in Los Angeles, and he was called upon to try the Cherry de St. Maurice murder cases in Sacramento several months ago.

During the past year, Judge Conley has tried important cases in San Francisco, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Alameda, Contra Costa, Riverside, Kern, Fresno, Merced and San Luis Obispo counties, besides attending to all of the judicial work of Madera county.

State Wide Prohibition and the Decitful Tactics of Its Advocates

As State-wide Prohibition is to be one of the issues at the general election in November the Prohibition party of California, through its hypocritical and deceitful leaders, has already commenced a campaign of wilful misrepresentation against the viticultural and hop industries of our State in which millions of dollars are invested, for the purpose of promoting temperance. These would-be reformers are not sincere. If they were tetotalers instead of Prohibitionists, who want to do all the drinking themselves, while depriving the other fellow of the same privilege, they might show the Missourian, for there is a big difference between the tetotaler who does not drink himself, but does not care how much the other fellow drinks and the Prohibitionist who wants to do all the drinking himself.

In addition to this failing of these pretended reformers its leaders are possessed of another nasty trait, that of misrepresentation. Now, comes Mr. V. S. Wooley, Pacific Coast manager of the Diamond Match Company, who has written to the Knights of the Royal Arch in San Francisco, denying that his company has issued an order prohibiting its employees from entering saloons or drinking liquors, as published in a Prohibition paper in Chico.

In the communication referred to Mr. Wooley, says in writing from his Chico office:

"My remonstrance had little or no effect. Our company does not believe in interfering in any manner with the personal liberty of our employees and have never issued an order prohibiting the use of liquor in any form. We are in no way responsible for the article, which was evidently printed for political purposes. It is wholly unwarranted and positively untruthful. I thank you for bringing this matter to my attention and will fully appreciate any efforts on your part to spread the refutation broadcast."

Mr. Wooley also asserts that his company had no trouble from intoxication, either at their Eastern factory or at its works in Tehama and Butte Counties, where they employ several hundred men.

Wm. J. Kearney was a prominent El Verano resident to visit the metropolis this week.

Mrs. W. H. Hanger returned to her home in this city, Thursday evening, from a few days' visit in Petaluma.

Miss Myrtle Cronin, of San Francisco, is spending a few weeks in El Verano, the guest of Mrs. H. D. Burmester.

Miss Mary O'Neil is here from the Bay City, enjoying a fortnight's visit, a guest of the Misses Adele and Margaret Livernash.

Owners of plates and other dishes left at the Cafeteria at the City Hall, are requested to call for them at Mrs. Burlingame's, where they have been taken for safe-keeping.

Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Daniel A. Ryan of San Francisco, Judge Angelotti of San Rafael and Judge Conley and son, Phillip, of Madera were distinguished guests registered at the El Dorado Hotel, Sunday.

Jesse F. Prestwood has departed for Guerneville, where he remains until after July 4th, when he plans to go to Jenner-by-the-Sea, where he expects to enjoy the summer vacation and a well-earned rest with his family.

One hundred and fifty dollars reward—To the finder of a valuable diamond ring, lost by Mrs. George Fetters of Fetters' Hot Springs, last Saturday. It is thought by the owner that the gem was lost in the neighborhood of the First National Bank.

Miss Rena P. Waltz, daughter of the Rev. Henry Waltz, will speak in the Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow (Sunday) at 11 a. m. Miss Waltz is a very talented young lady and had an extensive experience in Christian work. The public is cordially invited to hear this gifted speaker and singer.

Dr. Joseph E. Artigues, head physician of the French Hospital, Attorney and Mrs P. B. Bergerot, Mrs. C. Deloche, Misses Louise and Adele Lemoine, all of San Francisco; Hon. and Mrs. Robt. P. Hill and Major H. Hill of Eldridge, and Miss Adele Chauvet of Glen Ellen, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment during the celebration.

Tuesday evening next, at the City Hall, there will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce for election of officers. A large attendance is hoped for, as this meeting is one of importance.

Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons have made arrangements to afford our people the pleasure of reviewing the fine parades of the big celebration, in a series of moving pictures, which will be presented in this city as soon as films are completed. This stroke of enterprise will certainly be appreciated.

The annual grand opening of "The Oaks," the popular resort conducted by Mrs. M. Farrell, will be held tonight, and a general invitation to attend is extended the public. Music for dancing will be provided by the Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra, and a fine time is promised all who attend.

Mrs. S. B. Lewis and little daughter Elizabeth visited with relatives in Santa Rosa the fore part of the week. Mrs. Lewis was accompanied home by her father, W. F. White, who for many weeks had been very ill at the home of his daughter in the City of Roses. It affords his legion of friends great pleasure to again greet the sturdy pioneer.

Rev. T. M. Comerford had as his guest, on Sunday last, Rev. J. M. Cassin, who for more than twenty-five years has officiated as pastor of St. Rose's Church, Santa Rosa. Monday, Father Comerford had the pleasure of entertaining Rev. Peter C. Yorke and assistant, Rev. Ralph Hunt, of St. Peter's Church, San Francisco.

Art Hickman, popular amusement manager at Boyes' Springs, was denied the pleasure of being present at Sonoma's gala event to his great disappointment. Mr. Hickman was very ill for several days, spending that time with relatives in the Bay City. Genial Art is again at his post of duty and in our next issue will appear his usual entertaining budget of news.

Emile (better known as "Dutch") Andrieux had the misfortune to severely sprain his left ankle while playing baseball last Sunday, and has since been confined to home. The thought that he cannot play baseball for some time to come is causing Dutch greater mental anguish than the injured ankle does pain.

Dance music is now provided at Fetters' Hot Springs by a fine orchestra of three pieces from the metropolis. With one of the best floors in the valley and excellent music, Fetters' Springs will certainly be well patronized during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Glaister and family arrived here from Santa Barbara, Thursday evening, and will visit for a time, guests at the home of the lady's mother, Mrs. J. Burris. A host of friends are glad of the opportunity to greet this popular couple, who were among the most highly esteemed residents of this city.

Miss Adele Chepard, of Petaluma, has accepted a position for the summer with Mrs. P. Yenni. The young lady is thoroughly experienced in the management of an ice-cream and confectionery business, and will prove a valuable assistant to Mrs. Yenni during the busy season.

J. S. Erazmus, who purchased the Hickey place, near town, some monts ago, is having his home remodeled into a modern, comfortable bungalow. The work of reconstruction is in the capable hands of Contractor Ralph Murphy. When improvements are completed, this delightfully situated place will be one of the prettiest suburban homes in the valley. Mr. Erazmus is a valued addition to this valley, as he is a gentleman of worth and imbued with progressive ideas. We congratulate our valley on securing these desirble residents.

Sonoma's enterprising firm of electricians, Leiser & McDevitt, are to be congratulated on the splendid illuminations, which transformed the scene of the celebration into a city beautiful. The arrangement of the seven-hundred-and-fifty incandescents could not have been planned to produce a better display. The sunburst effect at each of the four corners of the plaza was very greatly admired, and the avenue of lights extending to the Northwestern Pacific Railway station was most effective. The lighting of the city could not have been placed in more skilled hands than those of Leiser & McDevitt.

Wednesday night of last week, the hospitable Froment home was the scene of a pleasurable gathering of young people, who assembled to celebrate the birthday anniversary Mrs. Froment's neice, Miss Louise Lemoine of San Francisco, who is her guest. A delightful evening was spent in music and dancing, delicious refreshments contributing to the general enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs Froment and their vivacious daughters are ideal entertainers, an evening in their home always proving hours pleasurably spent. There were present the Misses Louise and Adele Lemoine, Adele Chauvet, Josephine Steiner, Gabrielle Heggie, Annie and Rose Caminata, Eugenie, Antoinette and Marguerite Froment.

Edwin, the fourteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Burmester of El Verano, was the victim of a serious accident, Friday morning of last week. The baby escaping from under his mother's watchful eye, climbed the steps of the tank house, lost his balance and fell to the cement pavement below, a distance of eight feet. Dr. Thomson, who was summoned, could find no apparent injury, beyond the severe bruising of the little head, and it is sincerely hoped by the many friends of the family that serious results will not follow the unfortunate occurrence. Baby Edwin, it will be remembered, was a prize-winner at the Baby Show of last fall, with a percentage of ninety-nine-and-a-half to his credit, and is one of the finest native sons in California.

Genial Wm. H. Daly, on a visit here from the Bay City, received a highly gratifying letter, Thursday, from which we take the following extract: "The days of patient waiting are pleasant memories of the past now, for our Commencement exercises were held in the Knights of Columbus' Hall last evening, and the annual distribution of class prizes took place this morning at the University. You have probably learned of the fate of the Chambers Medal through the morning papers, but if you are still ignorant of its possessor, I will state, without further delay, that to the satisfaction of all present it was awarded to Darrell W. Daly. When the class medals and books were awarded, I think I fared well. I received two medals, one for religion, the other for Latin and Greek, and two books—one, the first prize for English, entitled 'The Panama Canal,' which I think will prove very interesting, and the other the prize for elocution. I didn't expect the medal for Latin and Greek, as you know." It is not only "genial", but also proud "Bill" Daly, since learning of the honors conferred on his talented son. Darrell, who is fifteen years old, with the new term will enter upon the fourth year of the high school course at St. Ignatius University, San Francisco.

Enrico Forni, who has disposed of his business to A. W. Lehrke, and who has for twelve years been one of Vineburg's most enterprising citizens, returns his sincere thanks to his friends, patrons and the public in general for the liberal patronage he has enjoyed and the friendship shown to him during that time.

R. W. Vernon returned from a business trip to Oregon on Tuesday last. The gentleman was gone three weeks and now says he is glad he is back to old Sonoma Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. David Volquardsen have received some very interesting letters from their son Leland, who is at present on Boaad the U. S. S. Stewart in the Mexican waters. The young man gives a vivid account of the fighting that he has witnessed at Mazattan and elsewhere. He gives the Mexican soldiers credit for having enough sense to quit fighting during meal hours. That is saying something for them. The chief dishes on their bill of fare is banana specials and red beans.

Easy Jim:

As I was standing at the station the other day, the Sonoma Ice Co.'s truck passed by and a handsome young lady, dressed in peacock blue silk, started to sing as follows:

Our new ice man is a nice man,
But one I can't endure,
For there's something in his business
That effects his temperature,
But love is such a funny thing.
I have had it once or twice,
But the only thing that a nice man knows is ice, ice, ice.

PLAN TO ATTRACT SONOMA VISITORS

One of the chief reasons for undertaking the strenuous labor of building up the wonderful Exposition of 1915, was the fact that it would bring hundreds of thousands of visitors to California, many of whom would, if properly interested, ultimately become permanent residents in the State. Thus each county and each locality must do its utmost to secure its share of these visitors.

This is one branch of the work that the Woman's Auxiliary is to assist in carrying out. Here in Sonoma, our own branch under the enthusiastic chairmanship of Mrs. P. N. Stofen, supplemented by the efforts of Mrs. F. T. Duhring as secretary, and Mrs. F. Clewe, treasurer, is already at work with ideas as to how our town can be made attractive to the thousands of people who will be passing on trains thru' our valley.

Nothing is more fascinating than a bright bit of garden and good streets at the depot; and the ladies believe that, if our own depot grounds were improved, and the incentive given to the Railroad people by having Broadway extended from the plaza north to the depot, the view, thus obtained of our handsome city hall and the plaza, with its' green lawns, red geraniums and stone drinking fountain, would interest and attract strangers to our town beyond any other influence, and in a very short time would more than repay its cost. Other towns are making all sorts of beautiful improvements, and THEY will get the visitors and new residents if we don't do our share of the work.

Hence, the local Woman's Auxiliary has invited representatives from the different civic bodies to be present at their next meeting, the last Friday in June, and discuss this plan, hoping a way will open for giving our little city this splendid new attraction.

C. Brugo passed away suddenly at the Toscano Hotel, last Sunday morning. An inquest was held, the jury finding that death resulted from natural causes. Deceased was forty-five years of age, and a resident of San Francisco. He was a guest at the Toscano.
